Using Lite To Move Volumes
While placing Volumes into a move is usually performed by using TapeMaster or a syncronization method, they can be moved using Lite when required.

Sending Volumes

Sending a Volume is the process of placing a Volume into a move status from the Repository you are currently at to that Repository's next Repository. The Next Repository is set in the Repository Options in TapeMaster.